Dear George:

Enclosed is my letter of invitation to Director Gates to be my guest, and the guest of Business Week magazine and McGraw-Hill, Inc., at the White House Correspondents' Dinner on April 22. I'd be grateful if you would pass it along to him. I don't know whether Mr. Gates has been to the correspondents' dinner in the past, but I know you have. If you're coming this year, you're cordially invited to drop by the Georgetown West Suite both before and after the dinner.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Gates:

On behalf of Business Week magazine and McGraw-Hill, Inc., I would like to invite you to be our guest at the annual White House Correspondents' Association dinner. As I'm sure you know, the President usually honors us with his presence at this black-tie affair.

This year's dinner is scheduled for Wednesday evening, April 22. We will be hosting receptions before and after the dinner in the Georgetown West Suite. The exact hour for the dinner still has not been set. In past years, however, the pre-dinner reception has begun at 6:30 p.m. and the dinner at 7:30 p.m. If you are able to be our guest, we will let you know exact times when they are established. Please let me know as soon as possible.

Sincerely,
